

LAWYER AVRUTIS HELD AS SWINDLER OF FRIEND'S WIDOW

Accused by Mrs. Anna Newman of the Grand Larceny of $10,000 Insurance Money.

Aaron Avrutis, a lawyer, with office at No. 80 Broadway and residing at No. 66 East One Hundred and Sixty-fourth street, was held for the Grand Jury to-day by Magistrate House. He is charged with grand larceny. Bail was fixed at $2,000. Charges against Avrutis are to be presented to the Bar Association.

Avrutis went to court in response to a summons which had been issued several days ago at the request of Mrs. Anna Newman, a widow, of No. 42 West One Hundred and Sixty-fourth street. She told Magistrate House that Avrutis, who is forty-two years old, was a friend of her husband's, who died in 1906, leaving her $10,000 in insurance. She had faith in Avrutis's friendship, and on Sept. 23 of that year gave him $4,000 to invest for her in second mortgages. On Oct. 20 she gave him the remaining $6,000 for similar investments.

Mrs. Newman said that nearly a month elapsed before Avrutis gave her any documentary evidence of having invested her money as she had directed, and finally, when she asked him about it, he assured her that the $4,000 had been invested in a second mortgage, but admitted that he had used the $6,000 for his own purposes. To make this good to her, she told Magistrate House, she gave her a mortgage for $7,500 on a piece of property he owned, telling her that it was a second mortgage. Later on it developed, she said, that the ostensible second mortgage was in reality a fourth mortgage. The property was foreclosed by the holder of the first mortgage. The same thing happened in the case of the $6,000 by the foreclosure on another piece of property on which she thought she held a second mortgage.

Still, she told Magistrate House, she had confidence in Avrutis. It didn't seem possible to her that he would try to swindle her. But, after being put off for nearly two years her patience had become exhausted. Magistrate House called the attention of Assistant District Attorney J. W. Pellette to the case after he had issued the summons, and it was on the latter's investigation that the warrant was waiting for Avrutis to-day.

Avrutis, who pleaded not guilty to the charge of grand larceny, said that Mrs. Newman had entrusted the money to him for investment, and that it was no fault of his, though it might reflect on his judgment, that the investments had gone wrong.

WORKS IN VACATION TIME.

Magistrate House Cuts Down Five-Day Outing.

Two Magistrates sat in Harlem Court to-day—Butts, the regular incumbent, and House, who though scheduled to begin a five days' vacation this morning, devoted the better part of the day to disposing of a number of cases which had been brought before him. Magistrate House is one of the most conscientious judges on the Police Court Bench, and several times has collapsed from overwork.

SLASHED ELEVATOR MAN.

Victim Runs Into Broadway and Crowd Gives Chase.

A young negro woman, who said she was Viola Smith of No. 324 West Thirty-seventh street, attacked James Newman, a West Indian elevator man, in his lift in the building at No. 250 Broadway, with a knife to-day and inflicted a deep slash across his cheek. The assault occurred as Newman was taking the elevator down. The girl had got in at the ground floor and remained in until all the passengers were out. As soon as Newman could get his gate open he fled into the street, with the young woman at his heels. A crowd following the pursuit to Crosby and Broome streets, where a policeman stopped the pair. Newman required the services of an ambulance surgeon and his assistant, who was locked up in the Mulberry street station. He said he had never seen her before, but the girl declared that he had taken a diamond ring from her and that she cut him for revenge.

PLEADS GUILTY OF KILLING.

Martha McLoughlin, the youth who shot and killed Edward Cashman, a chauffeur of No. 44 West One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street at No. 47 Seventh avenue on June 24, pleaded guilty to-day to manslaughter in the first degree. McLoughlin killed Cashman because the chauffeur called him a vile name. Evidence obtained by Lawyer Delag showed that Cashman, who frequented the restaurant where McLoughlin was employed as cashier and where the killing took place, had frequently taunted McLoughlin. The prisoner has been in this country less than a year. He will be sentenced Monday.

Bank Officials Arrested.

WINNIEP, Man., Oct. 24.—Gordon L. Nagle and John K. McLeod, cashier and ledger keeper, respectively, of the Solidus avenue branch of the Union Bank, having been arrested, charged with embezzling $5,000 of the bank's funds. Both are members of prominent families.

HIGH-GRADE GROCERIES
The continued growth of our Grocery department is due to many advantages in general, and to two causes in particular. One is the high grade of the groceries we sell, the other is the low prices we charge—two elements which are interdependent, but which in conjunction give us a unique position in New York City.
Having our own factory means that all foodstuffs are put up under personal direction.

YOUNG MEN'S SUITS DISTINCTION & DIFFERENCE
A man brought in his son, and said, "Show me the difference between your young men's suits and others."
We showed him, first, the small size in men's suits, which almost everywhere else is exploited as a young man's suit.
It fitted the frame.
Then we brought out the genuine young man's suit with its graceful waist lines, its close shaping over the shoulders and around the chest, and its young-looking pattern scheme; that suit did more than fit the frame.
It befitted the individual.
"How is it?" wondered the man.
Simply this: Our suits for young men are constructed by young men's tailors who would not know how to make men's suits, any more than the designer of men's suits can know how to cut for young men.
These are the days of specializing, and this is the store that specializes.
We strike the distinction between broad men, narrow men, big men, small men, men—and young men.
Incidentally, we strike the price down to the bones.
Any of these points individually makes a strong claim on consideration.
All in conjunction establish a formidable inducement to buy your young men's suits at the store which features them.
Our lowest-in-the-City-Regular-Macy-Saving prices are: $9.75, $12.75, $14.75, $18.50, $19.75 and $24.75.
Don't forget our blue serge suits are guaranteed. If you have any trouble with blue serge suits, you know what that means.

ENGLISH MODEL TOPCOATS for young men, too. Your choice of raglan or plain shoulders.
These are made of imported and domestic tweeds and homespun, and, being sold here at $19.75, $24.75 and $27.50, afford you a saving of about 15% as compared with other high-grade houses.
